'Inspiring people to create a bright future for all'

Ever thought about becoming a work based assessor to support your apprentice? Or thought of going in to assessing & teaching at a later stage in your career?

What used to be the A1 Assessor Award has been updated, the new qualification has increased in size but has been broken down in to individual units. You do not have to complete all units. We recommend that you complete the first two units which will allow you to assess in the work place and look at adding the third at a later stage depending on what you are wanting to achieve with the qualification.

This is not a teaching qualification however the theory of the first unit gives you an insight in to an introductory teaching qualification and touches on some of the subjects you would cover.

All applicants must complete an initial assessment successfully at Level 1 prior to enrolment this entry requirement is due to the qualification being a Level 3 and the first unit being a knowledge unit containing assignment work.

Level 3 Award in Understanding the Principles of Assessment

A knowledge only award for those who are starting their journey as an assessor or for those who need to know about assessment practice but who are not currently practicing.

Unit 302:

Assess occupational competence in the work environment

For practitioners who assess the demonstration of competence in a work environment using the following assessment methods: observation, examining work products, oral questioning & discussion.

For practitioners who assess knowledge and skill in vocationally related subjects; using the methods above in training workshops, classrooms or other learning environments.

Unit 301:

Understanding the principle & practice of assessment

Unit 303:

Assess Vocational Skills, knowledge and understanding
